VOLUME III, NUMBER 29 THE GOLD CENTER NEVADA CITY, NEVADA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, THE COUNTY SEAT PAPER JUNE 3,1929

OIL FLOTATION BALL MILL WILL BE USED LOCALLY

One of the most stupendous changes in the history of Nevada county mining is being accomplished at the present time at a famous old mining property of this county. From time immemorial it has been considered that nothing but the old fashioned stamps could grind the ore of this district and make possible the complete extraction of the gold. At this mine are being installed a monster ball mill and an oil flotation process. The oil flotation process is entirely new to this district and ball milling has been practiced only at the New England heretofore.

A 5 by 12 ball mill was shipped from the Allis Chalmers factory Saturday and is expected to be installed in the next few weeks. The space formerly used by the amalgamating plates and the concentrators in the big mill has been utilized for the building of massive concrete foundations to accomodate the ball mill which takes up a floor space of 21 by 18 feet in extent. A large classifier is also to be installed. The presen stamps will be be used for coarse crushing ahead of the classifier and ball mill until they are worn out then they will be discarded. The ore bins in the mill have been greatly enlarged and extra bracing put in.

A two cell oil flotation unit has been in use in the mill for some time on demonstration work and has so well proved its usefulness in handling the ore from this mine that six additional cells are to be installed at once. It is estimated that the cost of milling will be brought to a new low figure by this process and the losses negligible. Oil flotation has been practiced in other districts with startling success and its use on the ores of this district will be watched with a great deal of interest.

BOY SCOUTS ENJOY A NICE COUNTRY HIKE

Troop 6, Boy Scouts of America, of Nevada City took a hike last week to Scotts Flat to a campsite located by State Fire Warden W. F. Sharp. They were accompanied by Scout Leaders W. F. Sharp, M. D. Coughlin and Muller Chapman. The troop left Nevada City at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and made camp at 4 o'clock. They went by way of the Washington road as far as the Snow Mountain ditch to a spot near the head of the ditch on Scotts Flat. The boys prepared their evening and morning meals, while Mr. Sharp prepared the noon repast, which were eaten with eagerness by all present. The boys were enthusiastic over the trip and the keen pleasure enjoyed in carrying out their work in the forests.

At a gathering of Boy Scouts Saturday afternoon and evening at the Elks Hall 10 and 14 Eagle Scouts were initiated into the mysteries of the Knights of Dunamus, composed of Eagle Scouts only. A number of Grass Valley Eagle Scouts have been initiated into the society.

Supper was enjoyed at the National Hotel and at 8 o'clock a public initiation was held in the Elks Hall. Parents from Roseville, Auburn, Newcastle and Grass Valley had been invited to attend. It was one of the big events of the year in scouting.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The Grass Valley Union Sunday School picnic will be held at Chicago Park Wednesday and special train service will be afforded by the Narrow Guage.

There will be boating at Shebley's Lake during the picnic and refreshments will be served. George A. Shebley will have charge of the place that day in the absence of his brother, O. C. Shebley. Shebley Lake is one of the hisorical beauty spots of Nevada county and with its beautiful trees and green grass makes an inviting spot.

Nevada City's auto park is now in fine condition and was opened to the public Monday.

MINING LOCATIONS ARE PLACED COUNTY RECORD

The following mining locations have been filed for record the past week:

Radio King quartz, North American quartz, the Ruth quartz. The Lincoln Gold quartz, South West American quartz, Barite quartz, Black Diamond the 2nd quartz, The Eclipse Gold quartz, Sunrise quartz, Santa Anita Fraction quartz, South American quartz, and South East American quartz, by James Bradley and James Huffman, locators, on behalf of Spanish Mining Company and San Francisco Commercial Company.

P. W. Placer claim by Philip J. Walton in Moores Flat Mining District. C. H. Barkdull, locator.

The Celtic quartz in Rough and Ready Mining Distric by James A. O'Donnell.

SACRAMENTO CAMP FIRE GIRLS START A CAMP

The third organization to utilize the shores of beautiful Lake Vera for a summer camp is the Sacramento Camp Fire Girls who have taken 20 acres on the north shore of the lake the past week on which to establish a beautiful camp for the pleasure of its members.

J. Rude, local contractor, has been given the contract of putting up the first buildings and he is now erecting the wash houses, cook houses and sanitary arrangements which will be used the coming season. It is expected that a lodge will be built at a later date.

With Mills College and the Oakland Camp Fire Girls already well established at the lake, the coming of the Sacramento organization means that Lake Vera will be a well populated spot during the summer months.

Lake Vera will prove a powerful magnet in advertising the many scenic charms that Nevada county and Nevada City possess and the effective work done by W. H. Griffith in promoting the advantages of Lake Vera will make of it one of the popular summer pleasure spots of California.

HEAVY THUNDER STORM VISITED THIS SECTION

The heavy hunder and lightening storm which was accompanied by a heavy hail storm, did very small damage to Nevada City Friday evening. The lights were out for a short time when three transformers were burned out. The heavy lightening also injured the telephone service over up country lines and the fire alarm system was out of order for a short time. Line Chief Dolan and Herbert Hallett, fire truck driver soon had all troubles repaired.

Fully a half inch of large hail stones fell during the storm and were still on the ground and buildings in the sheltered places the next morning.

ANOTHER FALSE ALARM TURNED IN FROM BOX

The second false alarm to be turned in to the fire department in the pas few weeks was rung in last evening from Box 55 on Coyote street. Two small boys are reported have been responsible. There is a heavy penalty under the state law for such offenses and any one caught tampering with the boxes will be dealt with severely.

The usual crowd of the curious minded trailed the big fire truck and blocked the street with their machines, which is a violation of the city ordinance as well as the state law. A number of erring motorists will talk it over with the judge Saturday morning at ten o'clock.

Visitors at the B. F. Howe home Sunday were: their granddaughter, and family, Mr .and Mrs. Louis E. Stein and little son, Louis, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Happtsbegle, Mrs. Youman and A. J. McKesole of San Francisco.

LARGE MINING TRANSFER REPORTED REDEMPTION DATE IS NEARLY HERE

Rumors of an impending mining deal of considerable magnitude have been bruited for the past few days and many inquiries have been made of this office as to the identity of the principals and the property involved. The Nugget has first hand information of one of the largest deals in the district being under way but until the papers have been signod it is not privileged to divulge any information. Several large properties of the district have been experted the past few weeks and it is expected that the coming year will see some large time operations commenced.

The year delay over the foreclosure proceedings insituted by A. R. Archibald for control of two of the largest properties in the Nevada Basin district south of town has held up development work until title can finally pass. The defendants in the action brought by Mr. Archibald have but a few days left in which to redeem their property before title to the Banner, Central Consolidated and Norambague properties passes to the New England interests. Once this matter is legally settled it is presumed that active operations will be undertaken as New York capital is active in the movement behind Mr. Archibald. Another group has been working in the matter headed by prominent New York mining interests .The year of grace permitted under the law in foreclosure proeedings for redemption has held up developments in one of the most promising areas from a gold production standpoint to be found in California.

The development work being carried on at the Champion property under option to Gordon M. Bettles, is being watched with a great deal of interest, as the Champion in its heydey was one of the leading producers on the coast. With a production record of nearly thirty millions and worked to but an incline depth of 2750 feet, it still has great possibilities. There is no present intention of pumping out the old workings totalling some ten to fifteen miles of drifts, but there is considerable footwall territory which was never worked which offers some inducement. Mr. Bettles has quite a bit of ground to place out on a tributing basis and a number of leasers are already at work..

The promising appearance of the Murchie mine is one of the bright spots in the rehabilitation of the Nevada City district. After spending a large sum of money in the rehabilitation of the property, Mr. C. C. Von Loben Sels looks to be on the verge of a long and productive period in this famous old property.

The activity in the Poorman creek section where the Spanish Mining Company and the San Francisco Commercial Company, both controlled by Fred W. Bradley, presages much important development the coming year, particularly with the advent of cheap electric power into that district. The proposed power line which is ready for the construction period, will also afford power for the Gaston and Ancho mines. The Bradley interests have made a large number of additional filings on mineral ground in the past few weeks, another large group have been placed on record the past week.

The resumption of work at the Twin Sister means early production at this most promising property. The large tunnel being driven on the No. 3 level is likely to cut pay ore at any time although its objective is under the rich ore shoots uncovered in the upper workings. President Ray O. Foster, who recently disposed of his business interests at Talmadge, is giving his entire attention to the management of the property. Southern California capital is becoming interested in the property.

With the bonding of the Wand and Blackwell properties adjoining the Twin Sister group ,things should be quite active in the Snow Point district this summer.

With operations scheduled to be getting under way at the large Omega gravel properties following extensive development work, large production can be expected from this property which already has a notable past ercord. The Omega Hill interests have made large expenditures in getting ready for their operations.

The finding of speciment ore in the new workings of the Salmon mine in the Badger Hill district and the early resumption of work at the Siberia property following clearing up the title to the property, Cherokee will once again look up as a mining center.

MEMORIAL DAY QUIETLY CELEBRATED NEVADA CITY

The main event in the observance of Memorial Day in Nevada City was the procession of the school children to the cemeteries to decorate the graves of the old soldiers. The return of many old time residents was one of the largest in years.

WATER ASSOCIATION TO HOLD DANCE JUNE 15

The San Juan Water Association will hold another of its popular dances Saturday evening, June 15th.

These benefit dances are to raise funds for the needs of the Ridge water users and always prove popular with the public.

HARRY GRAY HILL PASSES

The death of Harry Gray Hill east of Redding the past week, will be received with a great deal of regret on the San Juan Ridge where he spent a number of years. He and his parents conducted a hotel at Cherokee and he later lived at North Columbia and Lake City afterwards going to Shasta ounty to make his home. L. W. Davidson is a half brother of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McClosky and little son and daughter left Thursday for San Francisco and on Saturday sailed for Casa Palca, Peru. He has a responsible position with the Cerro de Pasco Copper company and has been home for a few months vacation. He has been in the employ of the company for several years.

SPECIAL ISSUE SELLS PROVES VERY POPULAR

Copy sales of the special mining number issued by The Nugget the past few weeks continue unabated which is of course pleasing to the publishers who went to considerable expense to produce the issue in the hope of creating wide spread interest in the mineral resources of Nevada and Sierra counties. Many have said that it was the finest issue on mining ever gotten out in the county. It is to be issued annually each spring and each subscriber to the paper will always receive a copy.

Copies are on sale at his office, Preston Newsstand and Trezise Brothers in Grass Valley as long as the supply lasts. Telephone or write in your order for copies today. They will be reserved for you if you do not wish to take them now.

Ben F. Ballard, President Kate Hardy Mining Company— "I want to congratulate you on your mining issue. I have read it over several times".

Henry Hansen— "I received the mining number and was very well pleased with same".

A CORRECTION

The statement made in these columns last week that the Morning Glory mine at Alleghany was under bond was incorrect as the property is owned by the Alleghany Morning Glory company of which A. A. Codd of Reno is general manager. This company is preparing to reopen the property.

Miss Elaine Mobley, teacher in the high school at Auburn, spent the week end here with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Walter L. Mobley.

SALMON SPECIMEN ORE SAID TO RUN HIGH

The specimen ore recently uncovered in the bottom of the shaft in the Salmon mine at Badger Hill is said to show values running from $5000 to $8000 per ton in free gold. The shoot was uncovered at a depth of 127 feet.

The ledge is said to be six feet in width at the point of strike with only one wall showing so far and the ledge carries good milling values. Two shifts are driving the shaft to a depth of 150 feet, at which point drifts will be run to produce ore for milling. There is a 30 ton reduction plant on the property at the present time.

B. C. Leadbetter is superintendent. The property is being operated by the Parnall Gold Mines Corporation.

The dinner will be held at 6:30 at the National Hotel.

CIVIC CLUB WANTS CITY STREETS CLEANED

The Womans Civic Improvement Club wants the streets of Nevada City cleaned up, particularly the grass and weeds in front of some of the lots. It might be well to seek the delay in having the streets in the business district properly marked to follow out the rulings of the traffic ordinance enacted the past year.

The ladies are to be complimented on their work so far in behalf of civic improvement.

NEW PHONE BOOKS IN NEVADA CITY INCREASE

The work of distributing the June issue of the phone directory is now proceeding and Manager J. E. Gooding reports a total of 550 copies to be distributed, an increase over the previous issue of 25 copies. For the past three years there has been a steady growth in the company business in Nevada City which is of course caused by the growth in population in the town. The local listings are separated by cap letters which is an innovation here and will be greatly appreciated by the subscribers.

ALBERT M. ALLEN PASSED AWAY IN LOS ANGELES

Albert M. Allen, resident of Nevada City for many years and manager of the Nevada City Gas Works, passed away at his home in Los Angeles Sunday night from an illness of several month. He was born in New Jersey and came to Nevada Ciy as a young man For a number of years he assisted his father, the late B. T. Allen, in conducting the gas works. Upon his father s death he took over the gas works and managed them until in the nineties when he moved to Los Angeles. He was a man of pleasing personality and was widely known and highly esteemed.

He is survived by the following, his wife, Mrs. Anne Allen and two daughters, Miss Sadie Allen and Mrs. Adelaide Smith Mr. Allen was 84 years of age. The late Mrs. J. F. Colley was a sister. Interment was made in Los Angeles.

It is reported that a lunchen is to be tendered representatives of the California Development Association tomorrow in Nevada City.

GRACEY MINE IS BEING OPENED SINKING A WINZE

Operations have been resumed at the Gracey property and three shifts are now engaged in sinking a winze on the ore shoot opened up last year on the 170 level. Eleven men are employed.

Unwatering of the shaft and workings has been completed and the winze has been started at a point about 100 feet from the shaft. The ore shoot at this point is a promising one and with the ledge showing about six to eight feet in width between the walls, it is confidently expected that a large tonnage of milling ore will be opened up. If developments warrant the shaft will be sunk 200 feet and the property put on a producing basis again. It was equipped with a ten stamp mill last year and has electric power for operating the hoist and compressor.

Operations at the property were halted last year when water from the new canal of the Nevada Irrigation District flooded the workings. The point where the seepage occurred seems to have been closed up by silting and the workings are not making much water than previous to the ditch being put into use. The ejector will be able to handle the water that is showing up so far.

The vein where the winze is being sunk is pitching at an angle of about 80 degrees. Quite a bit of waste is being taken out at the present time and it is not expected to start up the mill for some time.

R. N. McCormack is in charge of operations for Dr. E. L. Herrington of Oakland, who has three claims under bond.

SIERRA COUNTY MINING

The Rock Candy Mine on the North Fork of the Yuba is not what its name might imply to one unversed in mining terms. It is not a place where rock candy is mined but a real gold mine with a history as long as a dog's tail. Just how it got its name is not generally known, for it is an old mine, dating back to the early days when it was known as the Blue Bank Channel Mine.

Frank Gualco and John Rainier are operating this property at present. They have just completed a drain tunnel which will eliminate the water in the main tunnel. They will now run a drift tunnel on bedrock.

The Table Rock Mining Company is making good progress in driving a tunnel to tap the Port Wine channel under Holland Flat ridge, according to H. R. Williams, secretary and terasurer. The tunnel is now in 1200 feet with 300 feet to go to reach the channel which has been proven by another tunnel driven years ago but which was too high. Eight men are employed.—The Messenger.

4¢ worth of electricity cooks the dinner for 4 people

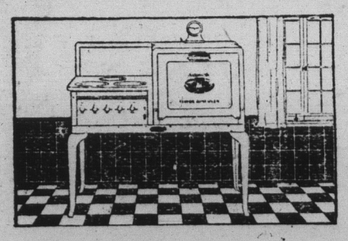
ABOUT 1c per person, less than the price of the coffee itself — that's the AVERAGE cost of cooking a family's meal with an electric range. Perhaps you never believed it to be so economical.

But remember, the electric rates were cut about a year ago. And today the price of electricity is below the price of electricity in the year 1914, although the cost of other things rose skyward as you well know.

What is the monthly cost?

A survey among our customers' accounts shows that the AVERAGE sum paid by our customers for cooking electrically, including lighting and small appliances, is but $5.76 per month! An amazingly low price for modern comfort, cleanliness and perfect baking.

Come in to our office or a dealer's store and see these modern electric ranges that are so reasonable to operate.



How the electric range improves cooking! Tender, juicy browned roasts with all flavor sealed in. Steaks broiled without smoking. Cakes fine in texture. Pies with delicious, flaky undercrusts. Such cooking you can do with less effort electrically, because the electric range is fully automatic.

The new porcelain enameled electric ranges are speedy. Biscuits, for example, are put into cold oven. They are done perfectly in about 11 minutes.

SIERRA COUNTY HAS GREAT POSSIBILITIES IN MINERAL WEALTH

By C. A. Logan,
District Mining Engineer,
Division of Mines and Mining.

The western half of Sierra county contains practically all of the county's mines. While two railroads touch the eastern side of the county, they are of little use to the miner who relies on roads to Nevada City on the southwest and Blairsden and nearby points on the Western Pacific in Plumas county. Downieville, the county seat, is 48 miles from Nevada City by good highway; Alleghany is 32 miles. The placer mining region in the northwest corner of the county is reached by road via Oroville or Marysville.

Due to lack of railroads nearly all the mining done has been for gold. The placers along the branches of Yuba River were among the richest in the state. They were fed by erosion of many miles of buried channels, the remaining parts of which drew attention as soon as the surface diggings were exhausted. While the drift mines were being found in the "fifties", Sierra Buttes Mine at Sierra City was opened. It has been the largest gold producer in the county. Alleghany and Forest were well-known drift mining camps for decades before the richness of their quartz veins was realized. The drift mines in the vicinity of Howland Flat were opened between 1855 and 1868 and the camp reached its zenith of production between 1862 and 1866 when it shipped about $600,000 gold annually. This has been the richest placer mining camp in the county, the production of some of the larger mines having been approximately as follows—

Union Company, $1,500,000 from 1700 feet of channel; Hawkeye Company, $400,000, from 800 feet of channel; Pittsburg Company, $400,000 from 900 feet of channel; Mounmental Company, $300,000 from 1028 feet of channel; Empire Company, $800,000 from 1672 feet of channel; Down East Company $400,000 from 400 feet of channel.

While it may be said that this is history, the placer mines of the county remain of present interest because both drift and hydraulic gravel deposits of value remain. But most of the production of gold in late years has come from the quartz mines of Alleghany district.

Alleghany District

Although the quartz claims now consolidated as the Plumbago group, and the Rainbow and other mines had been productive irregularly and in a small way since the late fifties, the later history of the camp as a quartz gold producer began when H. L. Johnson, listening to the tales of old miners who knew of a rich vein that had been crossed in the earlier placer workings, reopened the upper Tightner adit and began producing high grade ore in 1907. Since then the Tightner, Plumbago and Sixteen to One, have been the largest producers. The Oriental, Gold Canyon, Kenton and Rainbow were also important and there were several hundred thousand dollars each.

The town of Alleghany is near the southern side of an extensive area of andesite tuff and breccia, through which Kanaka Creek has cut a deep canyon exposing the older rocks. The Tightner and other vein outcrops were hidden beneath this andesite. Across Kanaka Creek to the south a smaller remnant of andesite covers the extensions of other vein outcrops including the Plumbago. The oldest of the bedrock series here so far as known are the Carboniferous rocks, which were originally shale and sand stone, but were later changed to slate, schist and quartzite. Mariposa clay slate was deposited on the carboniferous rocks after the latter had been compressed and folded. Later came great intrusions of igneous rock called gabbro, which has been altered to amphibolite schist. Then came intrusions of peridotite which formed dikes in the gabbro and amphibolite schist and in their contacts with the earlier rocks. The peridotite in turn has changed to serpentine. This rock and the secondary products from its later adternation are characteristic of this most important of the county's mining districts, to such an extent that it has been termed the "great serpentine belt". The more productive mines of Alleghany have produced numerous large pockets of specimen ore. The bulk of the quartz in the large primary veins is aa a rule low or nearly barren in gold content and where it has been milled in any amount this has been done in the course of systematically cutting up and exploring the vein in the search for "high grare". While "high grade" has been found in more or less well defined shoots, observable conditions seem to favor the opinion that the concentration of gold, and probably also its original deposition, was later than the period of formation of the primary veins. "Pockets" of from $50,000 upward have not been uncommon and the annual production of the district for a number of years has ranged from over $500,000 to $1,500,000. While serpentine or its secondary products (colored green by mariposite) are nearly always in evidence or nearby in the mines here, the veins are in the amphibolite schist or in the schist contacts with lenses of "slate" which is often graphitic schist.

The serpentine belt trends north and a few prospects are now being developed near Downieville where geologic conditions are in certain respects similar to those just described. The gravels of the ancient chanels under the present lava ridges north of Downieville were enriched by erosion of this great serpentine belt.

Sierra City District

Sierra City mining district became noted in the early fifties with the development of Sierra Buttes Mine, which produced about $17,000,000. It was opened by a series of adits driven into the Sierra Buttes. The lowest of these adits, No. 9, was 12,000 feet long and gave a depth of 1800 feet on the dip of vein. This mine still appears to have interesting possibilities in its upper part. The Mountain Mine, well up on the east slope of the same mountains was a good producer and still holds some promise. The most important geologic formation in this district is the immense dike of quartz porphyry (rhyolite porphyry) trending northwest from Sierra City into Plumas county. Most of the mines here occur in the carboniferous rocks or in the schists not far removed from the quartz porphyry. The district is one of milling ores principally. Though many lines and prospects offer promise, the district is not getting the attention it deserves. The most productive mine in the district in recent years has been the Four Hills, near Spencer Lakes close to the Plumas county line. It has been an exception to the rule regarding milling ores, as its later output has been from "pockets" mined near the surface. One of these produced $65,000 and other large bunches were found.

Hydraulic Mining

The hydraulic mines of the North Yuba drainage have become of interest again since the building of the Bullards Bar dam, which provides storage for hydraulic mine debris at three cents a yard. Depot Hill Mine, the oldest of the kind in the state, operates each year at the west county line near Camptonville. Indian Hill Mine is being reopened. Farther north, on the same great dead river, known as the La Porte-Port Wine-Brandy City-Camptonville channel are the following large bodies of gravel suitable for hydraulic mining:

Brandy City, 6,600,000 to 9,000,000 cubic yards; Scales and Mt. Pleasant, 30,000,000 cubic yards; Poverty Hill, 4,000,000 cubic yards.

In the same drainage, large bodies of hydraulic gravel remain unworked at Howland Flat and Pine Grove, St. Louis, Greenwood, Grass Flat, Eureka North, Poker Flat, Chaparral Hill, and at the Pride Mine, the last named near Sierra City.

Space does not permit mention of the numerous other mines and prospects in the county. The subject is covered in detail in the writer's report on the mines of Sierra county, to be published in the forthcoming issue of Mining in California, issued by the State Division of Mines and Mining.

MRS. ISAACS PASSES

Mrs. Elizabeth Isaacs, widow of the late John E. Isaacs, died Thursday morning from a lingering illness She was born in Wales 88 years ago and had lived in Nevada City for more than 60 years. She was prominent in lodge affairs, being a Rebekah.

She is survived by a brother, David Whildin of this city, two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Morgan and Mrs. Penberthy of San Francisco.

She was of a kindly disposition and had a wide circle of friends, who will be sorry to learn of her passing.

Arthur Hoge, Jr., Francis Hogan and Meyers Mobley composed a fishing party that went to Weaver Lake over the week end. Francis Hogan had a narrow escape from death when the boat capsized, but prompt and skillful action by young Hoge probably saved his life. A blinding snow storm was in progress when the accident occurred. A bonfire on the banks of the lake soon warmed up the thoroughly chilled young man.

Mr. and Mrs. John Solari were down from Susanville for Memorial Day. Mr. Solari is a Nevada City boy and expressed a keen delight in the old home town.

The heavy thunder and hail storm that broke over Nevada City Friday night did not prevent the big crowd from enjoying a splendid time at Redmen's Hall.

The class colors, yellow and orange were carried out in the decorative effect in a most pleasing manner. The light falling on the streamers of yellow and orange gave a most beautiful effect to the scene of happiness and jollity.

FOREST FIRE CALLS MEN OUT ON MEMORIAL DAY

On Memorial Day a call came to send men to Diamond Creek above Washington where a forest fire was burning. Twenty were called from this vicinity. The fire started about 300 feet above the cook house at the Diamond Creek saw mill. Men were hurried from the Omega mine to help quell it. Forest Ranger Vanderwalker of North Bloomfield was in charge of Nevada City men. They arrived in a snow storm and while it helped to put out the fire the men were drenched with the melting snow and suffered from the cold. A little over 120 acres were burned over before it was brought under control.

The first fire of the season last year started in the the same section last year.
